Food & Wine Festival with Exclusive Epicurean Experiences*

ORLANDO, Fla. – August 24, 2016 – Waldorf Astoria Orlando and Hilton Orlando Bonnet Creek, known for premiere food, wine and spirit experiences, will host the sixth annual Food & Wine Weekends from Sept. 16 through Nov. 13, 2016, featuring a mouthwatering menu of culinary events.

Presenting exceptional wine and culinary programming over the course of nine weekends, the resorts' Food & Wine Weekends are designed to complement the Epcot® International Food & Wine Festival, conveniently located less than one mile from the property.

Developed for those who truly savor the artistry of fine culinary preparation, the program for Food & Wine Weekends will include a set of signature guest favorites including the eight-flavored macaroon bar, traditional Royal Tea and Bar du Chocolat with champagne tasting. Guests can also make reservations to enjoy the four-course tasting dinners at the hotels' signature award-winning restaurants, La Luce and Bull & Bear, or try The Art of Sushi Pairing at Zeta Bar & Sushi Lounge. As an alternative form of culinary indulgence, the Waldorf Astoria Spa is offering a Tuscany Wine Wrap or Pedicure featuring the powerful antioxidant benefits of red grapes.

"Exceptional gastronomic experiences should play a starring role in any Orlando vacation, extending beyond the theme park visit," said Peter Kacheris, managing director of the Waldorf Astoria Orlando and Hilton Orlando Bonnet Creek. "Food & Wine Weekends allow our culinary team to showcase their talents and provide our guests with authentic dishes both aspiring foodies and serious epicureans will enjoy."

Led by Food and Beverage Director Jonathan Raz, Waldorf Astoria Orlando and Hilton Orlando Bonnet Creek are renowned for the distinguished menus offered at all twelve dining venues, featuring mouth-watering tableside preparation and an array of extraordinary pastry innovations. With nearly 20 years of experience in food and beverage operations, Raz's greatest joy comes from providing guests with customized, unforgettable dining experiences.

"We encourage our chefs to develop new approaches to cooking and to be the trend setters of the culinary industry," Raz says. "Food & Wine Weekends are an opportunity for our guests to see our chefs in action and to sample new, creative cuisine that they will forever connect with the memory of a beloved Waldorf Astoria Orlando and Hilton Orlando Bonnet Creek vacation."

Between Food & Wine Weekend events, guests can enjoy hotel amenities including luxurious, epicurean inspired spa services at Waldorf Astoria Spa, 18-hole golf on the Rees Jones-designed course and two pool complexes featuring private cabanas, a waterslide and three-acre lazy river.
