Waldorf Astoria® Spa Gives Guests A Glowing Complexion With The HydraFacial®

Non-invasive Treatment Delivers Luminous Skin without the use of Lasers

ORLANDO, Fla. – Wednesday, January 8, 2014 — Waldorf Astoria® Orlando, Central Florida’s landmark of luxury accommodations for the sophisticated traveler, offers guests another opulent opportunity to be pampered with the HydraFacial®, the latest breakthrough in skin resurfacing technology offered at the Waldorf Astoria® Spa.

The HydraFacial is a revolutionary, non-surgical procedure instantly delivering smooth, hydrated skin through a process known as “hydradermabrasion.” While other treatments can cause hypersensitivity and irritation, the HydraFacial provides immediate results without needles, lasers or discomfort. This groundbreaking approach to skincare moisturizes and replenishes the skin, differentiating it from all other exfoliation procedures. The treatment works to slough off dead skin cells and extract impurities while bathing skin in a myriad of moisturizing serums for a refreshed, revitalized complexion.

Designed to address concerns and conditions of all skin types—including fine lines, acne and dark circles—the HydraFacial is the soothing, non-irritating alternative to microdermabrasion. It is ideal for those with thin, sensitive or ethnic skin, who often experience discomfort during microdermabrasion. “The HydraFacial is one of the best skincare treatments on the market,” said

Director of Spa Operations Valarie Maloff, “The immediate and remarkable results make it a favorite amongst our guests seeking a beautiful, glowing complexion.”

The treatment is one of many luxurious occasions to indulge at the Waldorf Astoria Spa, a 24,000 square-foot-space of stylish sophistication offering transformative body therapies and soothing massages designed to relax and rejuvenate. With 22 treatment rooms, a tea lounge and a Jacuzzi®, the Waldorf Astoria Spa upholds the resort’s reputation for impeccable service and offers guests an unparalleled opportunity to relax in the lap of luxury.

Waldorf Astoria Orlando has put the destination on the map for luxury travelers. Nestled in a nature preserve and conveniently located near Walt Disney World®, the resort is a sanctuary from the hustle and bustle of neighboring theme parks. Cara Goldsbury, author of “Luxury Guide to Disney World,” calls it “stunningly impressive.” “Swank and sophisticated, Waldorf Astoria has redefined local luxury in Orlando,” she said.

The hotel is part of a unique resort complex that also features the top-rated Hilton Orlando Bonnet Creek, the award-winning Waldorf Astoria® Spa and Waldorf Astoria® Golf Club, the championship golf course artfully designed by Rees Jones and named one of the most “playable” courses in the crowded Florida market by two national golf magazines.
